"Juror"

Janine Marson

During the course of Janine's art career, since 1981, Janine has designed curriculum, coordinated and taught art programs for every level of ability. As a professionally qualified art instructor Janine has inspired the spirit of art to hundreds of her students throughout Toronto, Muskoka and through the Haliburton School of Art and Design as well as her own studio in Huntsville. Janine has a B.A. in Fine Art from the University of Guelph and a Diploma of Art and design from Georgian College. Janine is a seasoned, well-respected award-winning artist with a keen eye for color and design with a versatile talent in producing oil paintings, acrylic paintings and watercolor paintings featuring some of her favorite places such as Ragged Falls and Oxtongue River Rapids. Janine has her own studio in Huntsville, True Colors Art & Design, that showcases her artistic collection of original masterpieces. Janine is famous for her sold out gallery exhibitions such as "Through Tom's Eyes. A discovery of truth, light and color" that featured her 100 + original oils that garnished rave reviews and publicized news articles about the show, as well as her "Rural Roots" exhibition that celebrated her local Algonquin and Muskoka roots. Janine has exhibited in many solo and group shows and has created masterful murals throughout the Huntsville and Muskoka areas. She has created a variety of artistic artwork on paddles, canoes, violins and pianos. Janine's paintings have been sold throughout Ontario, the US and even abroad and her many commissioned pieces are in private collections throughout. Janine is a member of the Lake of Bays Heritage Foundation and believes in the preservation of the land that will benefit many generations to come and is a volunteer member and supporter of Oxtongue Lake for Arts and Cultural. Janine has a favorite Winston Churchill quote, one that she lives by: "Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts."
